ALLIANCE BENEFIT GROUP OF ILLINOIS JOINS SELECT GROUP OF ASPPA CERTIFIED FIRMS

PEORIA, IL – October 9, 2008 – Roland|Criss announced today that Alliance Benefit Group of Illinois, Inc. achieved recordkeeper certification offered by the American Society of Pension Professionals and Actuaries (“ASPPA”). The ASPPA certification program is based on an independent assessment of a recordkeeper’s ability to support plan sponsor and plan participant requirements. Sanctioned by the Centre for Fiduciary Excellence (“CEFEX”) and fi360, and audited by Roland|Criss, this is the only certification that strives to attest to the highest level of recordkeeping excellence.

Commenting on the certification, John Blossom, President & CEO at Alliance Benefit Group of Illinois said, “Being the only recordkeeper in the Midwest to achieve the ASPPA certification is a testament to the talent and diverse expertise of our staff, which has always been one of our key assets. Our goal is to continue our heritage of innovative and comprehensive retirement plan solutions, while meeting the demand for both employers and employees.”

Brian Graff, Executive Director of ASPPA, said, “Since recordkeepers play an integral role in helping fiduciary’s fulfill their obligations, it is appropriate to provide a program where they can demonstrate their adherence to the standard. This certification fulfills that need.”

In its continued effort to achieve a standard of excellence and promote self-regulation among retirement plan recordkeepers and third party administrators (collectively “Recordkeepers”), an ASPPA task force established 17 critical practices against which Recordkeeper certification assessments would be conducted. The purpose of ASPPA’s program is to help plan sponsors identify recordkeeping firms that have passed a rigorous test of their fiduciary support capability.

“The ASPPA certification is different from other industry credentials because it’s based on a third party audit process,” said Ron E. Hagan, CEO of Roland|Criss and ASPPA task force member. “This process that Alliance Benefit Group of Illinois has successfully completed tests such issues as fee transparency, quality controls, financial strength, technology support, and organizational leadership to name a few. It is the first standard of its type and is essential for measuring conduct and promoting an industry of self-regulation.”
